Spoilages are misprints, ink smeers, damaged garments, or any other issues that could arrise during printing. Since there are many variables on printing, there may be up to 2% or one piece spoilage allowance on any order. We strive to print 100% of every order correctly, but suggest 2% extra on every size if exact quantities are needed. As we might not be able to replace garments quickly. This will ensure the order totals stay complete. We take responsibility on anything over 2%, and will cover cost of damaged piece.
